ATTENTION: Preparatory course is compulsory for PG students and students who want to study their main course in Russian medium of instruction.

There are available all courses in Russian Language and students, who want to study in Russian language.

Before joining the main course, they have to study 1-year Preparatory department. There are 3 kinds of Preparatory departments: Pre-engineering, Pre-medical and Foundation course. Foundation course is a language course which students do before the Arts courses. During the Pre-engineering course, students also study basics of Math and Physics. Pre-medical offers also Biology, Chemistry and Physics classes

Please note! If you have a student without any of the required subjects for the Admission, he/she can start from the pre-medical/pre-engineering department to cover the absence of above mentioned subjects and join the main medical/engineering course in English or Russian medium by student's choice. It is also applicable for students who have only 10th Grade Certificate, but do not have 12th Grade.
